

Virtual Scavenger Hunt. Answer Key.

GRPM Collections Database.

What object can you find by searching “snow goggles”?

- What group of people created this artifact? Where do they live?

Answer: Inuit tribe - Northern Canada

- How did this artifact help its wearer adapt to their local environment?

Answer: Inuit tribe - Answer: Snow goggles protected the wearer's eyes from the harsh glare of the sun off the snow, preventing snow blindness.

Sometimes, this general search bar can bring up LOTS of objects! For example:

- How many object results appear when you search “carpet sweeper”?

Answer: 1639

Find the object with accession number “1994.49.1”

- Sketch or describe the design on this beaded panel.

Answer: Thunderbird design and nature scene

- How many beads is it made of?

Answer: 66,000

Which artifact has the accession number “1988.20.1”?

Answer: Giant grain storage basket

- Where was this unique object made?

Answer: Southeast Asia, most likely Thailand

- What iconic Grand Rapids furniture store displayed this item?

Answer: Klingman's Furniture Store

What type of animal skull is pictured here? It can be found at accession number “2019.9.15”

Answer: Wild Boar

Find the Sportswear Collection.

- Pick a uniform that interests you and read its story.
Discover what sport it was used in and when it was worn.
- Challenge: What was the team name of the basketball uniform in this collection?

Answer: Grand Rapids Tackers

Find the uniform that this sleeve belongs to.

- What team was this uniform from?

Answer: Grand Rapids Chicks

- What year was this uniform worn?

Answer: 1954

Explore —> Exhibits & Programs —> L Is For Lyceum - Overlooked Animals

- What type of snake is this?

Answer: Eastern Fox Snake

- What do they eat?

Answer: Small birds and mammals

- Which animal do these sharp teeth belong to?

Answer: Piranha

- What is the two-word taxonomy classification for this animal?

Answer: Pygocentrus piraya

- What is the name of this Civil War soldier?

Answer: Captain Patrick Kelly

- These playing cards were produced during the Civil War to raise the spirits of union soldiers and give them a way to spend their nights in camp. What were the four suits in the Union playing card deck?

Answer: Eagles, Shields, Stars, and Flags